3 · Federal opportunities open now

Grants.gov opportunities in "posted" or "forecasted" status whose title or synopsis matches your focus and whose eligibility includes nonprofits ("related" = your focus appears in the synopsis, not the title). Read the full notice before applying: many federal programs require a SAM.gov registration (UEI) and some favour larger or partnered applicants.

No matching federal opportunities are open today.

How this report was built

- Foundations: 320 private grantmaking foundations based in PA — the 350 largest by assets plus smaller ones (assets over $250K) in your ZIP area 174xx (IRS Business Master File, foundation code 04) — whose latest Form 990-PF was e-filed in 2024–2026 — 29,096 individual grants read from the filings' Part XV. A foundation is listed only if it actually paid a grant to a PA organization whose name or stated purpose matches your focus.
- Not covered: foundations outside PA that give into it, smaller PA foundations below the asset cut, community foundations and corporate giving programs (they file Form 990, not 990-PF), and grant lists filed only as PDF attachments.
- Federal: Grants.gov search API, keywords adult education, literacy, reading; 0 matched, top 0 shown.
- Sources: IRS e-file index and 990-PF XML (GivingTuesday 990 data lake mirror), IRS EO BMF, ProPublica Nonprofit Explorer, Grants.gov. Filings lag one to two years; confirm current guidelines on each funder's site before applying.
